Aim and Objectives of the Course:

People can communicate fluently in Hindi, in almost all State of India except Kerala, Tamilnadu and Karnataka. The people who belong to rural areas in Kerala can understand and speak in Hindi, but those in urban areas cannot do so. Now a day 's most of the students in Kerala are going to north India and other parts of the country for studies and for employment. That is why they should learn and communicate in a unifying language such as Hindi which connects all.

The aim of the course is to teach the different forms of Hindi and the great influence of the language. To develop the communicative skill in Hindi Language and inculcate values of communication among the students. To make a comparative study with special reference to Hindi and Malayalam and also to Hindi and English To learn about the cultural aspects of Hindi and Malayalam.
