Report on Add on Course - Threshold to Indian Constitution

The department of Political Science offered a Certificate Course on 'Threshold to Indian Constitution' during the year 2019-2020. The course aims at imparting knowledge about the legal and ideological framework of Indian Constitution and inculcating civic sense among students. It could add to the knowledge of the students about the fundamental law of the land, the constitution of India. The course aims to introduce to the students, the ideology and philosophy of the constitution, the constitutional laws and rights. This course acquaints the students with the basic structure of the constitution as well as the constitutional bodies and institutions.

The course was designed with 30 instructional hours and is imparted along with the regular degree programme without affecting their regular classes. Applications were invited from UG students of various departments and twenty four students from the department of Political Science enrolled to the programme. Classes started in the month of August 2019 and continued till March 2020. Classes were arranged on Saturdays and other holidays.

Ms Sreelakshmi Jayan, Asst. Prof, Department of Political Science, coordinated the course. The course included both formative and summative assessments. The Participants were continuously evaluated through quizzes, assignments and test papers. 20 marks were allotted for the Formative Evaluation component split up as 5marks for attendance, 5 marks for assignments and 10 marks for test paper. An exam of 80 marks was conducted at the end of the course forming the summative evaluation. A written exam of 80 marks was conducted at the end of the course and students who have successfully completed the course were awarded a certificate.
